

Theme Song

We are Marching in the Light of God (x 4)
 We are marching, Oo, Oo,
 We are marching in the Light of God (x2)

We are praying ...

We are talking

We are singing...

We are dancing...

CONFERENCE THEME
FAITH RITUALS & CELEBRATIONS:
A WOMAN'S SIGNIFICANCE

Vision

In 1977, the Catholic-Jewish Women's Conference (CJWC) was founded to promote fellowship and mutual understanding between our two vital traditions, and for forty years their annual conference has drawn women from across the greater Los Angeles region into deeper dialogue and friendship. Catholic and Jewish women friends from the South Bay have attended these conferences, and in 2016, we were inspired to begin a forum of our own -- we decided that a similar gathering was needed in the South Bay where Catholic and Jewish women could meet, hear stimulating speakers from both faith traditions on relevant topics, exchange ideas, learn about our faith traditions, and, best of all, kindle new friendships.

Speaker

Janèt Sullivan Whitaker

Janèt Sullivan Whitaker is a singer, composer, storyteller, recording artist, and theologian. Her music is commercially published by OCP Publications in Portland OR, and WLP/GIA in Chicago, IL. In January, Janèt retired from a 40-year career as a full-time parish minister in the Oakland Diocese. Her freelance vocation is to assist and inspire sacred music makers throughout the world, especially women and youth. Janèt holds a BA in Music from CSU East Bay, and an M.T.S in Liturgical Theology from the Jesuit School of Theology at Berkeley. She resides in Hayward, California.

Speaker

Rabbi Cassi Kail

Rabbi Cassi Kail recently began her tenure as the rabbi at Temple Beth El in San Pedro. She was ordained in 2011 from Hebrew Union College-Jewish Institute of Religion, where she also received a Masters in Jewish Literature. For the past eight years, she worked as a congregational rabbi for temples in New York. Previously, she served on the steering committees of InterFaith Matters, Reform Jewish Voice and the Empire State Anti-Poverty Initiative of the Mohawk Valley. While in Seminary, she co-founded a young egalitarian minyan called The Wandering Jews of Astoria, serving unaffiliated Jews in their 20s & 30s. Rabbi Kail is passionate about worship, Israel, interfaith work, tikkun olam (repairing the world) and building Jewish community. She loves teaching people of all ages, singing, and playing guitar. Rabbi Kail and her husband, Josh are proud parents to their two children, Noam and Talia.
